The century: decades of change Series - Safely watching Europe from across the Atlantic Ocean, many Americans observed the messianic popularity of Hitler and Mussolini and the subsequent outbreak of World War II with dismay. This program explores the six years preceding America's involvement in the war and explores the question: Could the U.S. have resisted involvement and why did American forces fight in another European war?

Stories about the Underground Railroad capture the imagination with accounts of determined slaves and "conductors" risking everything for freedom. Imagine the amazement of a high school student who uncovers evidence that the Underground Railroad ran right through her home town. An ordinary school assignment blossoms into an outstanding student video that investigates the hardships of slavery and the bravery of leaders such as Harriet Tubman.
